

VALUE ADDED AT SMART RECRUITMENT WITH TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE!

Smart Recruitment doesn't do things by half as evidenced by their recent comprehensive expansion programme, their no nonsense approach to business and their innovative solutions to your recruitment problems.

Much of Smart Recruitment's success can be attributed to their working practice as the largest independent recruitment agency on the south coast. Smart Recruitment has a unique approach to account managing whereby every account has a dedicated team of, not one, but two personnel.

Helen Stacey, Director of Smart Recruitment comments, "Our working practice is unique in that we have two dedicated personnel to each team – a Sales Development Executive (SDE) and an Account Co-ordinator. The SDE's role is to grow and develop the business and ensure the service given is second to none. The Account Co-ordinator's role is to provide comprehensive, professional, resourcing and administrative services to our clients and candidates. The benefits of this are two fold for the client – they always have someone on the end of a phone and they have twice the capacity dedicated to their account. For our staff it is also beneficial as it encourages team work and provides opportunity to share and support in various tasks. It is a solution that works well for both client and staff alike providing added value for both!"

Smart Recruitment has enjoyed a year of unprecedented success as they reach their 5th year in business having acquired Pearcy Personnel, expanded existing offices, increased their branch network and recruited several additional members of staff! With the increase in geographical coverage thanks to an increased branch network to include Bournemouth, Poole, Christchurch and Dorchester Smart Recruitment continue to expand and provide a service with significant added value to staff and clients alike.
