

Smart Recruitment and Kelly Services Win Impressive Contract

Following a rigorous tender process, which saw nineteen recruitment agencies competing for the Borough of Poole business, Smart Recruitment and Kelly Services celebrated their success at winning this significant contract. Smart Recruitment had already worked with the Borough for two years.

Both Kelly Services and Smart Recruitment underwent a stringent tender process including the production of a substantial proposal document and, following the success of this, gave detailed presentations and attended tough question and answer sessions.

Helen Stacey, Director of Smart Recruitment comments, "We are absolutely delighted to have retained this contract and are excited about working in partnership with Kelly Services. We have established excellent working relationships with staff from the Borough of Poole and we look forward to cementing these further and working in conjunction with the Borough's 'Civic Temp Scheme' as part of the contract."

Helen Harvey, Regional Director of Kelly Services, comments, "We are thrilled to have won this piece of business. The pitch was very competitive which makes the win all the more rewarding. We look forward to working closely with Smart Recruitment and are confident that we can provide the Borough of Poole with the calibre of staff it needs."

Collin Hague, Head of Personnel & Training Services, at the Borough of Poole comments, "It is imperative that our contracts are put out for competitive tender and that the process is rigorous to ensure best practice. We are confident we have made absolutely the right decision with the appointment of Kelly Services and the re-appointment of Smart Recruitment. Smart Recruitment have provided us with great service over the past two years and we are confident that this will be maintained and enhanced in partnership with Kelly Services."
